

Engagement Support Sessions

Empower your teachers to create full student engagement! Engagement Support Sessions are small group sessions led by an expert Kagan Trainer dedicated to helping your teachers implement structures and strategies proven to boost student engagement and learning. We'll assess your teachers' unique needs and guide them to the next step toward impactful student engagement. Support your teachers as they transform their teaching. We're here to help!

What Engagement Support Sessions Looks Like...

- Kagan Trainers can conduct 4 to 8 sessions per day, approximately 45 minutes to an hour and a half each, with up to 10 teachers maximum per session.
- Small teacher groups are selected by leadership, usually same or similar grades and/or subjects.
- Your Kagan Trainer will provide support options for each group to meet their unique needs and goals.
- Sessions may focus on: Replacing Call on One with Everyone Answers! structures, replacing solo worksheets with RallyCoach, infusing engagement structures into lessons, preparing for coaching, and more!
- Teachers will have the opportunity to ask questions, practice structures, and get expert advice.

Benefits of Support

- ★ Provide teachers top-notch support to implement the strategies they learned in the training.
- ★ Prepare your teachers for coaching. Ensure the coaching day goes off without a hitch.
- ★ Increase teachers' skills and confidence implementing Kagan.
- ★ Replace traditional instructional strategies with highly-engaging strategies that produce results.
- ★ Make engagement a reality by dedicating time, taking action, and supporting teachers along the way.
